HOLY MASS

The Ten Commandments of Reverence for the Blessed Sacrament

3. Genuflect or bow deeply when entering and leaving the Church and whenever passing before the Tabernacle or the Altar on which the Body and Blood of Christ rest. Dress modestly-avoiding revealing and sloppy clothes-and do not chew gum. Speak accurately about the Most Holy Eucharist, never referring to It as "bread and wine." And if you assist with the sacred music in your parish, do all you can to ensure that the texts reflect the truth about the Real Presence of Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

4. Refrain from useless chattering before the Tabernacle before, during and after Holy Mass in order to adore Him and to concentrate attention on the Risen Lord Jesus. Talking unnecessarily in the presence of the Most Blessed Sacrament destroys a golden opportunity to learn at the feet of the Master.

SUNDAY VESPERS

Saint of the Week

4 June Saint Maria Elizabeth Hesselblad

Maria was born in 1870 to a Lutheran family in southwestern Sweden. At sixteen she emigrated to the United States to earn money for her family. While studying nursing at Roosevelt Hospital in New York, Maria met Catholic patients, who awoke in her a longing for the fullness of the Church. Some years later, friends brought her to a Corpus Christi procession, where she heard the voice of Christ: "I am the one you seek." She was baptized on August 15, 1902 in Washington, D.C. While on pilgrimage in Rome, she visited the house where Saint Bridget, patroness of Sweden, had lived. Convinced that she was called to revive the order that Bridget had founded, Maria overcame sickness to be clothed in the Bridgettine habit. In 1911, two girls joined her as novices, and Maria's dream began to be realized. She cared unceasingly for all who crossed her path: the poor, the sick, children, priests. During World War II she sheltered Jews fleeing the Nazis. She reached out to non-Catholics, helping to convert the chief rabbi of Rome to the Catholic Faith. As Maria grew older, her sickness and sufferings increased, yet she saw her revived order grow and thrive. She died in 1957. Today, her sisters pray and work for Christian unity on three continents. She was canonized by Pope Francis in 2105.

Saint Maria Elizabeth, pray for us!

MASS INTENTIONS

On Thursday, June 1, the Mass Book opened for both Mass and candle intentions from July-December 2017.

Respect Life Ministry

The Spirit, as Saint Paul says, unites us to Christ: Anyone who does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him (Rom 8:9). Strengthening our relationship of belonging to the Lord Jesus, the Spirit enables us to enter into a new experience of fraternity. By means of our universal Brother-Jesus-we can relate to one another in a new way; no longer as orphans, but rather as children of the same good and merciful Father. And this changes everything! We can see each other as brothers and sisters whose differences can only increase our joy and wonder at sharing in this unique fatherhood and brotherhood.

~Pope Francis, Homily, Solemnity of Pentecost, May 216

IMPORTANCE NOTICE: There will be no Respect Life Prayer Service for the summer months (June, July, August). We invite you to pray the Rosary for Life or the Chaplet of Divine Mercy at home on the first Saturday of the month. Prayer resources are available in the narthex of the church. Thank you for your prayerful dedication and we look forward to resuming our services in September.

Respect Life Prayer Intention:

For all people; may the Holy Spirit lead us to a deeper understanding and appreciation for the gift of every person's life.

"...only when a young man has had a personal experience of Christ can he truly understand the Lord's will and consequently his own vocation. The better you know Jesus the more His mystery attracts you. The more you discover Him, the more you are moved to seek him." ~Pope Benedict XVI

Intensive Introduction to Attic Greek Course at Northeast Catholic College

The importance of learning Greek cannot be overstated. Western literature, drama, philosophy, political systems, all begin in Classical Athens and can be best understood when read in the original. Additionally, learning Attic Greek gives students access to literature not only of that specific era, but back to the works of Homer and forward through Patristic literature to the Byzantines.

This course offers students and intensive survey of Attic Greek grammar and vocabulary over three weeks, covering approximately two semesters worth of material. Additionally, students will begin translating short passages of Greek text.

The course is designed to be an introduction for students interested in the Classics who would like to move more quickly to begin translation courses, or as a resource for teachers of Classical languages such as Latin who would like to begin teaching Greek as well. This three-week course runs from Monday, July 24 through Friday, August 11, 2017. The cost is $450 for commuter students and $750 for residential students (room and board included). To register and view the course syllabus visit www.NortheastCatholic.edu For more information, contact the admissions office at admissions@northeastcatholic.edu or 603-456-2656
