Shawn began as a volunteer in the pro-life movement in college. He helped lead the first-ever local 40 Days for Life Campaign. From Executive Director of the Coalition for Life, he joined David Bereit as leaders of 40 Days as they grew it from a vibrant national to an international organization. One of the most sought-after pro-life speakers, Shawn will share the amazing story of how it has become the largest pro-life effort in the world.
