HOLY ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Who may receive this sacrament? First of all, any Catholic who is in danger of death, no matter what their status in the eyes of the Church, may do so. Even those who are in impaired communion with the Church, even those formally excommunicated, at the point of death may be anointed. In fact, it is the one sacrament a priest can give even if he is not perfectly sure the person is a Catholic. The reason, of course, is that Anointing forgives sins, which everyone wants to be free of as we pass through the gates of death to meet our Savior and Judge. Then, anyone who is seriously sick (not just a cold or minor flu) or chronically sick (cancer, heart disease) or admitted to the hospital, is a candidate for Holy Anointing. Anyone about to undergo a serious operation (general rather than local anesthesia is a pretty good criterion) may request it. Finally, since old age is a time of so many aches and pains and physical complaints, the elderly may ask for it as well. It is a very great blessing to know that not only prayer, but also one of the seven sacraments, is given us by God to comfort and strengthen us in our illnesses. We need never face our sickness alone.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

3 June ~ Saint Clotilda. The year of her birth is uncertain. Clotilda married the pagan king of the Franks, Clovis, around the year 492. She convinced him to baptize their first son, but the child died soon afterward. Clovis was enraged and blamed Christian baptism for his son's death. When a second son was born, Clotilda again insisted on having him baptized. He fell ill, but survived. Meanwhile, Clovis went into battle. As his army was on the verge of defeat, desperate, he called upon "Clotilda's God." The battle was won, and Clovis accepted baptism, along with about 3,000 of his subjects. When Clovis died in 511, the family fell prey to jealousy and bloodshed, yet God's grace prevailed. Her son Clodomir had his cousin assassinated, but later repented and entered a monastery. Her other two sons then fell upon two of Clodomir's sons and killed them. A third grandson, Clodoald, however, survived and became a monk. He is remembered as Saint Cloud (the city in Minnesota is named after him). After this, Clotilda retired to Tours, where she served the poor and the sick. Her two remaining sons, still warlike, were about to go into battle against each other; Clotilda prayed for a miracle and a sudden, severe hailstorm prevented their meeting in battle. Shortly thereafter, in 545, Clotilda died, and the two men reconciled to bury their holy mother. She is the patroness of brides and adopted children. Saint Clotilda, pray for us!

SEMINARIAN

We will be hosting one of our diocesan seminarians this summer. Matt Gill, originally from Saint John's in Attleboro and studying theology at Saint John's in Brighton, will be with us for the months of June and July. Matt will be spending time at the Cathedral with the Spanish-speaking ministry there, and also with us in the two parishes. He will be living at Good Shepherd with Father Leonard and me. This is a mark of honor and trust to have a seminarian assigned to us. Please introduce yourself and make him feel at home!

Respect Life Ministry

I pray that at every level a general commitment to support the family will reappear and be strengthened, so that today too – even amid so many difficulties and serious threats – the family will always remain, in accordance with God’s plan, the ‘sanctuary of life.’ ~ Pope Saint John Paul II, The Gospel of Life (Evangelium Vitae, no. 6)

Next Prayer Service for Life: Sat., June 6, at 8:45 a.m.

Spiritual Adoption Program

Do you like black jelly beans? If you do, chances are your mother probably ate some kind of anise during pregnancy. Anise is the substance which gives black licorice its flavor. Studies have suggested that toward the end of development, your spiritually adopted babies have been forming tastes and preferences based on their prenatal experiences.

THE CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL IT'S WHAT WE DO.

The Catholic Charities Appeal has a tremendous impact on our community as tens of thousands of people are assisted annually across the Diocese of Fall River. Through the generosity of the parishioners of the 83 parishes of the Diocese, the hungry are fed, the sick and infirm are cared for, and the children and adults in need of shelter and protection are housed and comforted, just to name a few of the many services that depend on the annual Catholic Charities Appeal. Please prayerfully consider giving as generously as possible to our brothers and sisters in need. A “pledge” will allow you to contribute more and spread it over 10 months without a payment being made until July.

COMMON CORE

We are all invited to meet Dr. Peg Luksik, a nationally-regarded champion for parental rights and local and teacher control in education, on Thursday, June 4, 2015, at 7:00 p.m. at the Baptist Temple Church, 700 North Eastern Ave., Fall River, a convenient, accessible location with ample parking. She will discuss her deep concerns about Common Core, the federally contrived system being imposed in MA that has serious implications for all our students K-12. Her presentation is especially helpful for parents who are trying to figure out changes they are observing in what and how their children are being taught and parents who are concerned about all the time invested in testing rather than teaching. She is a devout Catholic who has devoted decades to practicing her faith in the public square. She speaks about Common Core as a parent herself, an educator in the fields of special and elementary education, an author, and a deeply-committed advocate.
