PROPER BEHAVIOR AT MASS

When we enter and leave Church, we genuflect toward the Tabernacle. Christ is present for our sake. By allowing our right knee to touch the floor, we acknowledge that He is our Lord and God. If we are unable to genuflect, then a bow is sufficient. During Mass, if we pass in front of the altar or tabernacle, we bow reverently. If we come in late to Mass, for whatever reason, we genuflect as usual when entering the pew and then, when we reach our place, we kneel for a few moments in prayer before sitting down. Such little acts of respect may seem insignificant, but they continually remind us that we are not just in any building, but rather in God's own house, which we have the great privilege of visiting. Jesus Christ is always with us, in the tabernacle of every Catholic church. Thank you, Lord, for your presence among us!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

19 September ~ Saint Alonso de Orozco. He was born around 1505 in Oropesa, near Toledo in Spain, where his father was the local governor. Upon hearing the preaching of Saint Thomas of Villanova, he felt his call to the Augustinians confirmed. Many times during his novitiate, Alonso felt tempted to leave, but his doubts were always relieved in prayer. He was ordained in 1527 and assigned to the missions of the New World, but he was struck down on the voyage with a bad case of arthritis and forced to return to Spain. In 1554, he was named Imperial Preacher to Charles V in Madrid. Though he could have done otherwise in those surroundings, he chose to live very humbly. He slept on a table, not a bed, and used some dried and twisted vines for a pillow. His cell in the convent of San Felipe Real was next to the door so that he could tend to the poor. Afflicted with scruples, he prayed with abandon and overcame them. Alonso wrote prolifically on spiritual topics. At the end of his life, he wrote his autobiography, in which he reported that Our Lady had appeared to him in a dream and commanded him with one word: "Write!" So he did. In obedience, he wrote a new book about Mary every year. After Alonso's death in 1591, crowds of the faithful stormed the building where his body lay, desperate for a relic. Pope Saint John Paul II canonized him in 2001. Saint Alonso, pray for us!

Respect Life Ministry

Let us ask a very simple question. It's good to believe in God with all our heart, it's good to hope that he will help us in difficulty, it's good to feel obliged to give him thanks. All this is just; but do we love the Lord, even a little? Does the thought of God move us, amaze us, soften us? . . . Are we able to think of God as the caress that keeps us alive, before which there is nothing? A caress from which nothing, not even death, can separate us? Or do we think of him only as the great Being, the Almighty who made all things, the Judge who monitors every action? All true, of course; but only when God is the affection above all our affections, does the meaning of these words find their fullness. Then we feel happy, even if a little confused, because he thinks of us and above all he loves us! Isn't that impressive? Isn't it impressive that God caresses us with the love of a father? It is so beautiful! He could have simply revealed himself as the Supreme Being, given his commandments and waited for the results. Instead, God did and does infinitely more than this. He accompanies us on life's journey, he protects us, he loves us. ~ Pope Francis, General Audience; The Family (Pt. 24, Prayer), Aug. 26, 2015
