PROPER BEHAVIOR AT MASS

Please, let us not leave Mass early unless it is absolutely necessary: that is, it is a true emergency. Whether we sing or not, we should stay right through to the end of the recessional hymn, if there is one. While there are possible exceptions to this guideline, most who leave early don't really need to and ought not to, plain and simple. The worst case, I believe, is those who habitually leave Mass right after receiving Holy Communion, without even stopping in the pew to make a prayer of thanksgiving. This is disrespectful to God and distracting to those who are praying and thanking God for his great gift, the Holy Eucharist. Many of us have heard it said that at the Last Supper, the only one to leave early was Judas Iscariot. Don't be a modern day Judas!

SAINT OF THE WEEK

3 November ~ Saint Hubert. Hubert served in the court of the Frankish King, Pepin Herstal, in the late seventh century. He had a reputation for extreme worldliness and for enjoying the wildest entertainments. It is told that one Good Friday, while everyone else was at church commemorating the Passion of the Lord, Hubert mounted his horse and went out to hunt. Catching sight of a great white stag in the forest, he gave chase. In the middle of a clearing, the stag stopped and turned towards him. Hubert was astounded to see a crucifix gleaming between its antlers. Jesus spoke to him from the Cross: "Unless you turn to the Lord, Hubert, you will fall into Hell." Hubert got off his horse and knelt: "What shall I do, Lord?" he asked. "Seek out Bishop Lambert," came the answer. Hubert left the court and went to the city of Maastricht, where the holy Lambert was bishop. Hubert became a priest under him and, when Lambert was martyred, was elected his successor. For twenty fruitful years, Hubert ruled his diocese, taking pains to reach all his people, especially pagans, with the Gospel message. He is said to have worked many miracles before dying a holy death on 30 May 727. Saint Hubert, pray for us!

WORLD YOUTH DAY

will take place in Poland, July 22 – August 1, 2016. A group will be going from Bishop Stang High School as in years past. The cost is $3,899. A brother and sister from our parish, Caroline and Robert Coady, have expressed a desire to participate. Both went to our school and have been very active members of our parish, with their family, for many years. It is a real blessing to have them represent our parish at WYD 2016. A main concern at this point is funding. Since the planning and payments for this trip began in July 2014, their payment plan will be accelerated to make up for lost time. They also need to pay for passports. It would be wonderful if we, as a parish, could assist them. Any amount of financial assistance would be helpful. I have begun with a personal (not a parish) gift to each of them. If you would like to help sponsor them, please put your contribution in an envelope marked WYD 2016 and place it in the collection basket. Thank you in advance for your support!

HOLY HOUR FOR VOCATIONS

This Sunday, Nov. 1, from 3-4 p.m. at St. Mary's Cathedral.

Respect Life Ministry

Only if we look at children with the eyes of Jesus can we truly understand how, by defending the family, we protect humanity! The point of view of children is the point of view of the Son of God. The Church herself, in Baptism, makes great promises to children, by which she binds the parents and the Christian community. May the holy Mother of Jesus – through whom the Son of God came to us, loved and begotten as a child – render the Church able to follow the path of her motherhood and of her faith. May St Joseph – righteous man, who welcomed and protected, courageously honoring the blessing and promise of God – render everyone capable and worthy to welcome Jesus in every child that God sends to the earth. ~ Pope Francis, General Audience, Family-29. Promises to Children, Oct. 14, 2015

CHILDREN'S HEALTH ISSUES

Don't let your child be a victim! Our children are subject to numerous societal pressures, such as being popular, being thin, taking drugs or alcohol, etc. Anorexia, bulimia, substance abuse, and bullying are all the things that can rob your child of precious childhood years or even life itself. If your child is struggling with any of these issues, contact the Office for Child Protection (508) 674-4681 and see the resources available at www.cssdioc.org.
