THE HOLY OILS

The bishop prays, as he prepares to consecrate the Sacred Chrism: "O God, author of every increase and of all spiritual growth, graciously accept the joyful homage of thanksgiving, which the Church renders you through our voice. For in the beginning you commanded the earth to produce fruit-bearing plants, and among them the olive tree, to bring forth the great richness of this Oil, that its fruit might serve for the making of sacred Chrism. David, too, foreseeing by the spirit of prophecy the sacraments of your grace, sang of oil making our faces radiant with joy; and when in former days the world's sins were washed away in the Great Flood, the dove, showing forth by an olive branch a figure of the gift to come, announced that peace had been restored to the earth. In these latter times, all this has been manifestly fulfilled, for when all sinful deeds are washed away in the waters of Baptism, an anointing with this Oil makes our faces joyful and serene. Moreover, to your servant Moses you gave the command that he make his brother Aaron, washed first with water, a priest by the pouring of this oil. To this there came still greater dignity, when your Son, Jesus Christ, Our Lord, insisted on being washed by John in Jordan's waters; for as your Holy Spirit, in the likeness of a dove, was sent upon him from on high, your voice then followed and declared him to be your Only-Begotten Son, well pleasing to you; and you were seen clearly to affirm him, just as your prophet David had foretold, as the one anointed with the oil of gladness above his companions." The prayer of consecration follows.

SAINT OF THE WEEK

1 July ~ Saint Junipero Serra. He was born in 1713 on the Island of Majorca off Spain. He entered the Franciscans at 18, and his uncommon intellectual gifts caught the attention of his superiors. Trained as a seminary professor, Junipero longed to go to the American missions. Finally, at the age of 38, he was allowed to sail for Mexico. Shortly after arriving in Vera Cruz, he received the insect bite on his leg that would fester and cause the ulcer, swelling and pain that plagued him all his life. It never slowed him down, nor did his severe respiratory problems. He quickly learned the Indian languages of Mexico and California so that he could preach and catechize the natives. In 1769, at the age of 56, Junipero was sent to Baja, California as his new mission field. He immediately founded at San Diego the first mission of the nine he would eventually build. He brought the Indians the Gospel and the sacraments, as well as agricultural and other innovations that enriched their lives. He loved above all to say Mass and to share his love of Our Lady. In the last three years of his life, Junipero retraced his steps along the coast, traveling over 600 miles on foot to confirm the natives he had already baptized. He died at the age of 71 in 1784, worn out by his labors, at Mission San Carlos Borromeo at Carmel, still clutching the little cross he had always carried on his travels. "Ever forward" was his personal motto. He is one of the patrons of religious and missionary vocations, of asthma sufferers, and of travelers. Saint Junipero Serra, pray for us!

FORTNIGHT FOR FREEDOM WITNESSES TO FREEDOM
 FORTNIGHT4FREEDOM★ORG

American Catholics are committed to building a society which is truly tolerant and inclusive, to safeguarding the rights of individuals and communities, and to rejecting every form of unjust discrimination. With countless other people of good will, they are likewise concerned that efforts to build a just and wisely ordered society respect their deepest concerns and their right to religious liberty. That freedom remains one of America's most precious possessions. And, as my brothers, the United States Bishops, have reminded us, all are called to be vigilant, precisely as good citizens, to preserve and defend that freedom from everything that would threaten or compromise it. ~ Pope Francis, Welcoming Ceremony, South Lawn of the White House, Washington, D.C., Sep. 23, 2015

FATHER JOHNSON'S RESPECT LIFE PRAYER INTENTION: For our President, Governor, legislators, judges, and all in service to the common good; that through the gift of heavenly wisdom they may work to uphold religious freedom and conscience protection for all.

2016 CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL

Feeding the hungry, clothing the naked, visiting the sick . . . All of the corporal and spiritual works of mercy are perfect ways to express our love for God. Yet, it is not always possible for each of to be present when someone is in dire need. However, we can contribute to the Catholic Charities Appeal so that someone can be present to carry out the charitable works in our name. Please be as generous as possible to the Appeal and to those in need. A "pledge" of support will have an impact on those less fortunate.
